The Thomas Anthony “Tom” Iadevaia Scholarship has been established as an annual, college scholarship to current GCSA recreational players of $1,000.00. This honors a man who was instrumental not only in soccer in Tulsa and Oklahoma but in establishing the Green Country Soccer Association. As quoted by family, “I can’t” was not in his vocabulary and should be a motto for us all. The soccer community lost a dedicated advocate to the sport of soccer in December 2015.

Soccer was always a very big part of Tom’s life from an early age. During the early 70s, he became consumed with soccer – playing, referee, coaching. From his leadership came the Northeast Oklahoma Adult Soccer Association and a league of 77 teams. He also worked with leaders in the Oklahoma City area in the development of Frontier Country Soccer and Central Oklahoma Adult Soccer League programs. By the end of the 1970s, the Tulsa Roughnecks came aboard the North American Soccer League and Tom was there to develop even more soccer enthusiasm. He worked with Pepsi to bring Pele to Tulsa and the Brazilian’s visit drew thousands to the sport. Tom twice served as chairman of the Oklahoma Soccer Association’s Executive Board. Obtaining his State referee badge and was often seen at tournaments. He obtained his USSF “B” license and coached his son and their team, the Tornados, to a regional appearance in Raleigh, NC, and the finals in Dallas in 1983. He was inducted into the Oklahoma Soccer Hall of Fame in 2004.

He is survived by his wife, Gayle; son and daughter-in-law, T.A. and Kimberly Iadevaia; grandchildren, Abbey and Meghan Rose Iadevaia, Dallas, TX; brother, Anthony Iadevaia and his wife, Vicki of St. Joseph, MI; and seven nieces and nephews. Green Country considers it an honor to be allowed to provide this scholarship in recognition of Tom.
